100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named JAMES, about 22 years of age, his fore-teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

J. H. WASHINGTON.

Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against harboring or carrying off said fellow.

C 18 JOHN A. STEWART.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE, Fairfax Court-House. Va.

Was Committed

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 28th ult. as a runaway, a mulatto man, who calls himself JERRY MORE, and says he is free born, and that he served his time with a Mr. Francis White, living on Big Capon, Hampshire co. Va. at Cold Stream Mills, and that he is recorded as a free man in the cleak's office, at Romney, Va. Said mulatto man is about 23 years of age, 6 feet high, stout and well made, has lost the first joint of the fore finger on his left hand.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

GAZETTE AND Alexandria Daily Advertiser.

PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1819.

The President of the United States returned to the city of Washington on Friday last, from his farm in Virginia.

The death of John Langdon, esq. formerly in the senate of the United States, and late Governor of Newhampshire, is noticed in the eastern papers, with the high encomiums due to his higuly respectable character. [New-York Gazette.

By the laws of the state of Ohio, every black and mulatto in the state is required to produce a certificate of his or her freedom, and to "enter into bonds with at least two good freehold securities, in the penal sum of at least five hundred dollars," conditioned for his or her good behaviour, and for not becoming a town charge. It is made the duty of the overseers of the poor in the several towns, to remove from the town all persons of color who do not comply with these requisitions; and all persons resident in the state are prohibited employing, harboring or concealing, all such persons not furnished with the certificate, and who have not given the bond required, under the penalty of a fine of one hundred dollars. Slavery is not permitted in Ohio, and the laws seem calculated to guard effectually against the introduction of free blacks.

New-Orleans, August 21.

A decision was yesterday given by the honorable Judge Lewis, of the District Court, for the first judicial district of this state, which involved a question of considerable interest to the community. Peter George had been convicted before the criminal court of an assault and battery on a person called Aime, and was sentenced to fine and imprisonment. While in prison under his sentence, the further execution of the sentence, as respects imprisonment, was respited by the governor until the meeting of the senate, it being understood that application would be made to that body for a full pardon. The sheriff received orders to liberate him, and he was permitted to go at large. Shortly after his liberation, Mr. Dennis, one of the criminal judges, conceiving that the governor was not authorized by the constitution to grant a reprieve in this case, issued what is called an escape warrant to apprehend George, in order to undergo his sentence. He was accordingly lodged in prison by the sheriff. On Wednesday last he was brought up before judge Lewis, on a writ of habeus corpus, in order that the question might be determined whether or not, in the last instance, he was legally imprisoned. The judge decided that it was a case in which an escape warrant could not lie, and ordered him to be set at liberty.

Baltimore, Sept. 25.

We should feel a strong repugnance to publish the following disgraceful circumstance had it not come from a source whose veracity we cannot doubt. A stranger travelling to the westward afoot, was taken ill on the Frederick road, near the Monocacy—He applied at several places, but was denied admittance—he lay under a tree for some days, and on Friday last expired, probably from having been denied the rights of hospitality. His corpse remained from Friday till Tuesday last without interment—was not even enclosed in a coffin—on that day a person in the neighborhood nailed some rough planks together in which the remains were placed, and a few black persons offered to dig a grave for it, when the owner of the land refused it a burial on his ground! The corpse was above ground when our informant left the place.

A newspaper has been commenced at Camp Feeeman, in Texas, called the "Texas Republican." The first number contains a general order, dated June 22d, signed by James Long, commander-in-chief. It furnishes also some speculations on the friendly disposition of the inhabitants of St. Antonio towards the project of the revolution, and the strength of the royalists at that post, which is said to consist, according to the information given by spies, of 200; that of Labadie, of 80 men.—The revolutionists think they will be able to drive every royal Spaniard beyond the Rio Grande, during the present fall.

ROBBERY.

On Friday evening the 10th inst. at Somerville, a passenger in the Swift Sure stage, had his portmanteau rifled of upwards of 1200 dollars in gold, between his arrival and retiring to bed, previous to which, he discovered the felony, and charged a fellow passenger with it. Through the vigilance of Mr. Mann and family, the money was found amongst some lumber in the street. The supposed thief, is secured in Somerset gaol.

LATEST FROM SPAIN.

Oracle Office, Portsmouth, Sept. 20.

Yesterday arrived brig Lucy, Shackford, 43 days from Cadiz. Left August 6, brig Hector to sail next day for Portsmouth; schooner Iris, Gardner, of Baltimore, for Havanna, 3 weeks; brig Rising States, of Somerset, Ms. from New-York for Havana; ship Fanny, of New-York, and brig Fanny, of Philadelphia, just arrived; a New-York brig, unknown; passed going into Cadiz, ship Bingham, from Philadelphia; spoke, lat. 39, long. 49, brig Mentor, of Marblehead, 12 days from Philadelphia for Gibraltar.

The sailing of the grand expedition for South America was fixed for the 20th September. It was to consist of 5 line of battle ships, about 5 frigates, several small vessels, and 150 transports. Capt. Shackford lay within hailing distance of the fleet, and represents it as very efficient. Gen. O'Donnel, the governor of Cadiz, was appointed to the command of the expedition, which was to consist of 20,000 men—12,000 of whom were already quartered in the neighborhood. There were in the bay 4 of the 5 ships of the line belonging to the fleet.

The crew of the patriot privateer Constitution had been removed from Cadiz to the country.

The king of Spain was at the Baths, near Madrid.

Captain Shackford knew nothing of Don Onis or the Marquis Yrujo.

TREATY NOT RATIFIED AUG. 6.

Mr. Hall, the American Consul, stated to captain Shackford, on sailing from Cadiz, that the Treaty with America was not ratified.

Also arrived, ship Antonio, Rollins, 55 days from Liverpool.

Boston, September 21.

The Dutch ship Admiral Everston, of 84 guns, from Batavia for Holland, was run ashore, (to preserve the lives of the crew, she being in a sinking state) on the Island of Diego Garcio, in lat. 7 30, S. long. 77, 22, E. and totally lost. Brig Pickering, Edes, of this port, conveyed part of her crew to the Isle of France, and sailed again May 20, to receive the remainder, with the effects saved. It is reported she had a valuable cargo on board. [Palladium.

Extract of a letter from Gibraltar, July 29. received by Mr. Topliff.

'Teas of all kinds are excessively dull—Flour from 7½ to 8½ not very brisk—We have considerable parcels on hand. There is some little stir in Tobacco—speculators offer 10 dols. to pick, and from 7½ to 8 dols. for tal qual, that is free from rotton and sea-water damage.

"The U. S. brig Spark, Lt. Weaver, has sailed on a cruize off the Western Islands in pursuit of the piratical brig that robbed the Rajah, Lovett, of Beverly.—The Erie is also on the look out for her.

"Brig Hector sails in a few days for Ivica, for salt—Brig Thetis, for St. Ubes, for salt, and thence to Boston.

"The fruit will be ready to ship by 8th of Sept. and from 25 to 30 per cent cheaper than last year. The crop is good, with the exception of the grape used for making wines.

"The wind has been East for the last 8 days.—There is a small prospect of its changing to-morrow when we shall have many arrivals from the West, no doubt."

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the Hibernia, and John Dickinson, the editors of the Mercantile Advertiser have received Irish papers, containing London dates of the 19th of August, and a few hours later intelligence from Manchester, by which it appears the Reformers were flying from that place to their homes. One account says, all the roads leading from this town to Ashton, Stockport, Cheadle, Stratford, Liverpool, Rochdale, Oldham, Bury, Bolton, &c. are covered with wounded stragglers, who have not yet been able to reach their homes after the events of Monday. There are seventeen wounded persons along the Stockport road; thirteen or fourteen on the Ashton road; at least twenty are on the Oldham; seven or eight on the Rochdale; besides several others on the roads to Liverpool, &c. One woman died last night at Eccles, of the wounds she received. Seven persons in all are said to be dead. Mr. Hulme is not dead, as at first reported.

The events of the meeting has caused a very great sensation in London.

London, Aug. 19.—Price of Stocks, 71½.

From the Dublin Morning Post, August 23.

STATE OF ENGLAND.

The sensation which has been excited throughout the whole of England by the Manchester Tragedy, as it is aptly designated, is deep and general. In this city there is perfect unanimity between men of all parties on this appalling subject. Every one asks, what will the Ministers do? Will those who have wantonly shed the blood of their fellow countrymen, be bro't to trial, and if found guilty, made examples of? There is no longer question as to the facts, although the Courier, whose vile promptings must have contributed in no small degree to this dreadful consummation, has still the hardihood and the indecency to deny, distort, and suppress, as it may suit its abominable purpose.

Out of evil good may come, however: and, if we are not much mistaken in our estimate of the probable effects of the Manchester catastrophe, the cry for reform, and for the punishment of the guilty in this dreadful business, will be sent forth in a voice of thunder from land's-end to land's-end.

The subject being of such intense interest and deep importance as to absorb all other considerations, we have devoted the greater portion of our paper this day to shew the Irish public in what manner the London press has taken it up. We also insert from some of the principal London papers, who had their reporters or correspondents on the spot, the most authentic accounts of all that has occurred at Manchester, down to Tuesday evening. This was necessary to put our readers in complete possession of the circumstances. Never was a recital better calculated to excite sympathy for the innocent and helpless sufferers, and bitter execration against their persecutors. Bad as we are in Ireland—cruel and unfeeling as we have been to one another—nothing stains our annals so foul as this blot in the page of English History.

The Courier continues most industrious to collect, or invent, whatever is most alarming. In a second edition of Thursday, it informs us that the following placard was stuck up in some parts of the Metropolis during the last night. Among other places, it was stuck up on the door of Lord Sidmouth's house:—

To arms—Revenge—the Manchester Murders.

Another placard, it says, was also stuck up, enforcing the necessity of a strong attendance on Monday, at Kennington Common. It is understood that the meeting will be held on Monday, either there or nearer the Metropolis.—The Chairman is not yet named.

When we consider under what feelings of irritation this meeting will be held, we think that some judicious and temperate means might be resorted to, to cause its postponement or prevention. Perhaps this was the effect anticipated by the contrivers of the Manchester Plot.

The Liverpool papers of Friday, bring no additional news from Manchester.

London, August 19.

Extract of a letter from Manchester, dated on Tuesday.

"But now, after the Tragedy, comes the Farce. About half past ten o'clock this afternoon, a report was circulated that the Reformers were coming by thousands, armed with pikes, from Oldham, Royton, &c. This obtained no credit. However, about eleven, Mr. John Moor, jun. one of the constables, made his appearance on the Exchange, in the utmost agitation, and addressed the astonished merchants assembled there to the following effect:—"Gentlemen, I am sorry to inform you that circumstances have occurred which render it necessary that this building should be instantly closed. All who are members of the Military Corps or of the Civil Power must instantly repair to their respective rendezvous; and other gentlemen are requested to close their ware-houses, and look to the protection of their own property, as we are now obliged to declare the town in a state of open Rebellion!!!—In consequence of this address, the Exchange was instantly deserted—all the shops and warehouses were shut up—and the most fearful alarm was visible on every countenance. After waiting a while, and finding no pikemen made their appearance, I proceeded towards the Oldham road, where I found every thing quiet.——I met several country tradesmen from that quarter, whom I knew, and from their information was assured every thing was perfectly quiet, and that there was not the slightest foundation for the alarm which had been created.

"Hunt I understand, was to-day brought up for examination, which was comprised in the following questions:—

"Magistrate—Pray Mr. Hunt, what did you come here for?

"Mr. Hunt—Pray Gentlemen, what am I brought here for?

"Mr. Hunt was remanded.

"To-day a Constable was arresting a poor lame vagrant, whom he treated ill.—A respectable bleacher, named Wilson, interfered, by saying, 'Don't use the man cruelly;' when the assistance of a Cheshire soldier was called, and instantly Wilson was charged with exciting a riot. The Yeomanry man's sabre was immediately drawn, and Wilson was marched to the Police Office, from whence he was taken to the New Baily prison, in custody like a felon. There fortunately, he was known to one of the Magistrates, and after some hesitation was discharged.—I mention this as one of the 'fantastic tricks' which the minions of authority are playing."

"We learn by a gentleman who arrived by the Mail this morning, from Manchester that on the night of Monday all the roads leading from that town to Middleton, Leigh, Royton, &c. presented a distressing spectacle of men, women, and children, all hurrying home in the greatest disorder, some with their clothes torn, others lamed by the wounds they had received in the affray, &c. Yesterday morning several hundreds of persons were seen within fourteen miles of Manchester lying in the fields by the road side, overcome by fatigue, or unable from the injuries they had received, to reach their homes. The military and police continued parading the streets of Manchester during the whole of Monday night. [Star.

Our attention has been for some time past occupied by the singular state of things which appears to have grown up among some of the nations of Europe since the general peace. Though all is quiet & smooth without, there are occasional indications of a deep seated spirit of discontent, particularly in the north of Germany and in England; which would seem well calculated to arrest the attention even of the transatlantic politician. As to France, tho' still somewhat distracted by parties, by her ultras, and her liberals, her constitutionalists and anti-constitutionalists, she is, at this moment, after all her humiliations, her costly triumphs, and most signal defeat, the richest, the happiest, the least oppressed, and if need were, the most efficient nation of Europe. At the cost indeed of torrents of blood, and of unspeakable misery and crime, she has attained to a degree of freedom unknown to her before.—Her people are infinitely improved in knowledge, the property of the nation is more equally distributed, the oppression of feudal rights is completely abolished: and if the present king survive, as for the interest of the world as well as of France, it is most desirable he should, for some years longer, the constitutional liberty of Frenchmen, and the compact and mighty power of France will be established upon the most solid foundations. In Germany, and particularly in Prussia, the scene is far different. The great diffusion of taste for knowledge, which distinguish the people of the north of Germany, their habits of deep reflection, and love of metaphysical abstraction; while they tend to keep them distinct from the ordinary political struggles of monarchs and statesmen, (in which for the most part, the interests of the people are not at all considered, or unhesitatingly sacrificed,) eminently qualify them to act a distinguished part in any struggle, where their feelings and prejudices shall once be fairly enlisted. Such a struggle was that, in which, after having seen their country overrun by the licentious hordes of a foreign invader, and its inhabitants made to drink the bitterest dregs of the cup of humiliation, they were invited by their sovereign to take part in 1812 and 13, with an assurance from their prince that the overthrow of the enemy should be the signal of their own more complete emancipation, and that on their return from the field of victory, they should return to the rights of freemen at home; they rushed to the contest with the most enthusiastic ardor; liberty, so long the idol of their secret worship, a worship, nourished and confirmed by the deep streams of classic lore, liberty was held forth, as the reward of battle;—and the despoilers of their country, the insolent strangers who had degraded and scoffed at their nation, and insulted their high spirited and lovely queen, were the foes, whom they were called upon to encounter. In such a contest, so excited, they could not, as they did not, fail—but they are yet the subjects of a despotic military government—cheated in their hopes, betrayed in their dearest interests, looked upon with suspicion, if not with hatred; can it be wondered at, by those who understand the highly excitable and enthusiastic character of the Germans, that a most portentous ferment should exist among them, or that existing, it should occasionally vent itself in such feelings as led to the assassination of Kotzebue, by the fanatic Sandt. We shall indeed be surprised, if much more serious scenes are not yet to follow.

In England the causes of dissatisfaction have none of this depth of moral feeling.—They are there, the mere ebullitions of ignorance, poverty, and vice: and consequently threaten much less serious consequences. The immense debt and consequent expenditure of G. Britain, require the continuation of enormous taxes, when the monopoly of commerce and manufactures which mainly support them, can no longer be maintained. The competition of foreigners, in diminishing the extent of English commerce, and the circulation of English manufactures, must necessarily deprive those, whom the excess of these branches of industry formerly employed, of occupation and support: and these outcasts; together with the numberless seamen and soldiers, whom the return of peace, has thrown without means of support or habits of industry, upon an already surcharged community, constitute, together with a few profligate and designing leaders, the chief actors in the scenes of riot and confusion, which have recently disturbed and still seem to menace, the peace of England. That these threatening appearances, however, are little regarded either by the government, or the people at large, is to be inferred from the unconcern, which the former beheld the late numerous assemblage in Smithfield, (in the centre of London,) and the unopposed arrest by a few peace officers, from the midst of this multitudinous people, of one of their leaders*—and as to the latter, it is clearly evinced by the progressive improvement in the stocks, and by recent large investment of money in the various public funds, than which there can be no surer criterion of the confidence of the people at large in the government, and of the very slight impression, which the popular tumults occasion among those, who are ever the most sensitive to approaching changes, the monied interest.

* And, it may be added, from the ease with which a handful of cavalry dispersed 70,000 of them, after killing some and wounding 30 or 40 others, at Manchester.

PAINFUL INTELLIGENCE.

We received late last evening, by the hands of Lieut. Commandant Claxton, just from Norfolk, the Norfolk Beacon of Saturday, which communicates the following melancholy intelligence: [Nat. Int.

Norfolk, September 25.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT!

The Hero of Lake Erie, the gallant Oliver H. Perry, is no more!

The United States' Corvette John Adams arrived in Hampton Roads on yesterday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, from Port Spain. (Trinidad,) from which place, she sailed the last day of August. From Lieut. Commandant Claxton, who at present commands that ship, we have received the following communication respecting the death of this distinguished officer.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Died—On the 23d August, on board the U. S. schooner Nonsuch, at the moment of her arrival at Port Spain, in the Island of Trinidad, Commodore OLIVER H PERRY. He was taken with the yellow fever on his passage from the town of Angostura, and, although he was attended by two able physicians, he was reduced to the greatest extremity on the fourth day of his illness. Sensible of his approaching dissolution, he called his officers together, and communicated his last wishes.

He retained his faculties to the last—was perfectly collected and resigned, and submitted to his fate with great resolution and fortitude.

His remains were interred at Port Spain, on the 24th August, with Naval & Military honors. The troops of the Island, a great concourse of citizens, together with the officers and crews of the John Adams and Nonsuch, formed the procession. The funeral was splendid and imposing, and there appeared to be but one sentiment of mournful regret among all who assembled to witness this melancholy spectacle.—The conduct of the Governor, Sir Ralph Woodford, on this occasion, was marked with distinguished respect towards the deceased, and every American should feel grateful to him for the honors which he paid to the remains of their gallant countryman.

It was the wish of the officers of the squadron that the body should be immediately conveyed to the United States, but the surgeons were of opinion that it would have been utterly impracticable.

Alex'a. Common Council.

September 25th, 1819.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Police (under the direction of Messrs. Keith, Smith, Ramsay and Robinson) do cause benches to be erected in the centre of the new market-house, for the accommodation of those who attend the market from the country, and that no other stalls be rented in that part of the market-house to their exclusion, till further orders.

And it is further ordered, That benches be placed in all the corners of the market house, and that it be the duty of the Clerk of the Market to direct those from the market-square into the market-house, when fitted up, and to provide and fix up a set of small scales and weights, for the accommodation of people from the country.

Ordered, That the Mayor be authorised to cancel the licence of John Jackson & Co. as auctioneers, on the payment of half a year's tax thereon.

The petition of George Grayson, (a colored man) was received and read, and ordered to lie on the table.

Ordered, That the auditor issue a warrant in favor of Anthony Crease, for thirty dollars, the amount expended by him, under an agreement with the late George Deneale, acting in behalf of the Council, on the Chalybeate Spring.

On balloting for a Guager, Mr. James McClish was unanimously elected.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the district of Fredericksburg, in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell, at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next, lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg. The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

4000 Acres of Land,

Correct Information.

THE stock advertised for sale by the Mechanics' Bank as standing in our name, is not our property. Our stock note thereon has been continued, under heavy and disproportioned curtailments, ever since March 1818, for the use of the real owner, a respectable mechanic of this place, because he could not obtain leave, upon a transfer, to substitute his stock note for our's We have no interest in said stock beyond the sum that will retire the said stock note, and we do not think it proper to advance more money than we have done for curtailments.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington.
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity whcih teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
